

Reese Roof Estimating Chart

Calculate the horizontal area under the roof (Foundation plus overhang), then multiply by the correct multiplier to convert to roof area.

To calculate the multiplier: Use the Pythagorean theorem to calculate the length of the hypotenuse (the rake of the roof).
Divide this number by the run. The result will be the multiplier.